FELONY CODES

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

A. The purpose of this bail schedule is to fix an amount upon which a person who is arrested without a warrant may be released from custody prior to appearance in court. If a person is arrested pursuant to an arrest warrant, bail is set at the amount of the warrant.

B. After a defendant's first appearance in court, the amount of bail will lie within the sound discretion of the judicial officer before whom the defendant appeared and may be greater or less than the amount set forth in this schedule, subject to the provisions of Penal Code section 1275 and controlling case law, including In re Humphrey (2021), 11 Cal. 5th 135. This schedule may also be used by a magistrate in fixing bail pursuant to Penal Code section 815a at the time an arrest warrant is issued, the amount of which lies in the sound discretion of the magistrate.

C. Prevailing legislation places the burden on law enforcement agencies to notify the magistrate if the scheduled bail is not adequate for the crime. Penal Code section 1269c provides that if a defendant is arrested without a warrant for a bailable felony offense or for a misdemeanor violation of a domestic violence restraining order, and a peace officer has reasonable cause to believe that the amount of bail set forth in the schedule is insufficient to ensure the defendant's appearance or to ensure the protection of a victim, or family member of a victim, of domestic violence, the police officer shall prepare a declaration and file it with the magistrate requesting higher bail.

D. Persons not entitled to be released on bail are those charged with:

Capital crimes (i.e. murder with special circumstance), when the facts are evident or the presumption great. Penal Code section 1270.5 & California Constitution, Article 1, Section 12(a);

Felony offenses involving acts of violence on another person when the facts are evident or the presumption great (i.e., substantial evidence of guilt) and the court finds based upon clear and convincing evidence that there is a substantial likelihood the person's release would result in great bodily harm to others; or

Felony offenses when the facts are evident or the presumption great (i.e. substantial evidence of guilt) and the court finds based upon clear and convincing evidence that the person has threatened another with great bodily harm and that there is a substantial likelihood that the person would carry out the threat if released. California Constitution, Article 1, Section 12(c).

E. Certain offenses that carry a possible sentence of death, LWOP or life in prison, or that pose substantial risks to public safety, are listed here as "NO BAIL*". While bail would initially be set by the magistrate at no bail upon booking, , a judge should, at arraignment, set bail an appropriate amount based on the sound discretion of the court, unless the judge determines that the defendant is not entitled to bail, in accordance with Penal Code sections 1270.5, 1275, Cal. Const., Article 1, section 12, and controlling case law, including In re Humphrey (2021), 11 Cal. 5th 135.

F. Bail for offenses involving larceny under the Penal Code, as listed in this schedule (e.g. P.C. 487, 496, 504, etc.), is the scheduled amount, or if there is a substantial loss, in a greater amount in the discretion of the judge or magistrate. This policy is also to apply to fraud type offenses of other Codes (e.g. Insurance Code, Revenue and Taxation Code, etc.).

G. The bail schedule shall contain a general clause for those offenses not specifically listed in the bail schedule. For all felony offenses and enhancements not listed, the bail amount shall be set according to the state prison top term potential for the offense plus enhancement.

Top term 3 years	$10,000
Top term 4 years	$25,000
Top term 5 years	$30,000
Top term 6 years	$50,000
Top term 7 or more years	$100,000
Top term Life/LWOP	No Bail*

H. Penal Code section 1270.1 prohibits the release of an arrestee on bail in an amount OTHER THAN THAT SET FORTH ON THE BAIL SCHEDULE prior to a hearing in open court for:
   1. Violent felonies as described in Penal Code section 667.5 (c), but not 460(a);
   2. Serious felonies as described in Penal Code section 1192.7(c) (including those listed in Penal Code section 1192.8); and
   3. Violations of Penal Code sections 136.1(c), 243(e)(1), 262, 273.5, 273.6, felony 422 and 646.9.

I. All references in this bail schedule to a code section shall include all subsections thereof unless a specific bail is set forth for a particular subsection.

J. Felony offenses in which the defendant is not to be released without judicial review are:
   1. Any felony where the defendant has (2) two or more serious or violent felony prior convictions (Penal Code Sections 667(e)(2)(A) & 1170.12(c)(2)(A));

2. Any felony sex offense where the defendant has similar prior convictions (Penal Code section 667.71).
3. Narcotic felony offense (Health and Safety Code Sections 11353, 11353.5, 11361, 11380, 11380.5), where defendant has two prison prior convictions of same nature (Penal Code section 667.55).
4. A misdemeanor or felony offense where an enhancement is charged pursuant to Penal Code 666.1.
5. A misdemeanor or felony offense charged under Health & Safety Code 11395.

K. The Bail Schedule contemplates the following practice where more than one offense is charged:
   1. When a defendant is booked on two or more charges arising from the same course of conduct on the same occasion, bail shall be the amount set for the charge having the highest bail.
   2. When a defendant is booked on two more charges arising from separate courses of conduct, bail shall be the sum of the amount set for the charge in each course of conduct having the highest bail.
   3. For sex offenses arising from threat or violence, bail shall be the sum of the full amounts set for each charge irrespective of whether the charges arise from a single course of conduct or single transaction.

   EXAMPLE #1

   This example demonstrates how to calculate the bail amount when a defendant is booked on more than one charge arising out of a single act that precludes multiple punishments.

Charge 1	459/460.1PC	$50,000
Charge 2	496PC	$10,000
Charge 3	487PC	$10,000

   The bail in this example is $50,000 because the PC 459 charge has the highest bail, and all the charges arise from a single act that precludes multiple punishments.

   EXAMPLE #2

   This example demonstrates how to calculate the bail amount when a defendant is booked on more than one charge arising from different acts that permit multiple punishments.

Charge 1	VC 10851	$10,000
Charge 2	VC 20001	$25,000
Charge 3	VC 23153	$25,000

The bail amount in this example is $60,000 because VC 10851, VC 20001, and VC 23153 are separate acts that can be punished separately.

L. Pursuant to Penal Code section 1269b(e), judges shall assign an additional amount of required bail for each aggravation or enhancing factor CHARGEABLE in the complaint including, but not limited to, additional bail for charges alleging facts that would bring a person within sections: 667.5, 667.51, 667.6, 667.8, 667.85, 667.9, 667.10, 12022, 12022.1, 12022,.2, 12022.3, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.53, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.8, 12022.9, of the Penal Code, or Health and Safety Code sections 11356.5, 11370.2, or 11370.4. Judges shall also assign additional required bail for offenses involving large quantities of controlled substances.

M. The following bail shall apply to violations of Section 23152/23153 of the Vehicle Code where there are separate convictions:

Number of Priors	Bail
23152 (a-e) w/no separate convictions and BAC less than .15	$5,000
23152 (a-e) w/no separate convictions and BAC .15 or greater	$10,000
1 separate conviction within 10 years w/BAC less than .15	$15,000
1 separate conviction within 10 years w/BAC of .15 or greater	$20,000
2 separate convictions within 10 years w/BAC less than .15	$35,000
2 separate convictions within 10 years w/BAC .15 or greater	$40,000
3 separate convictions within 10 years (Felony)	$100,000

In any DUI case, including those alleging prior convictions, defendants SHALL BE ELIGIBLE FOR S.O.R.P. RELEASE. Pretrial services is advised to consider appropriate release terms, including but not limited to, alcohol monitoring and/or testing.

N. Pursuant to PC 1269b(f), bail shall be zero dollars ($0) for an individual who has been arrested in connection with a proceeding in another state regarding an individual performing, supporting, or aiding in the performance of a legally protected health care activity, as defined in PC Section 1549.15, in this state, or an individual obtaining a legally protected health care activity, as defined in PC Section 1549.15, in this state, if the legally protected health care activity is lawful under the laws of this state.

O. Bail for misdemeanor offenses is addressed at pp. 47 et seq. below.
